Middle East Situation Report #13
(as of 1100 EST, 12 January 1984)

LEBANON/SYRIA

Druze leader Walid Junblatt told Ambassador Bartholomew last Monday that he believes President Gemayel is blocking implementation of the security plan and preparing for another round of fighting. Junblatt claims that he would accept the plan if the Lebanese Army moved out of two key positions on the Alayh ridgeline and promoted the Druze and Muslim officers who were recently passed over.

- This is the first indication that the Druze believe the Lebanese Government may be trying to undermine the proposed plan.

Junblatt reportedly is going to Moscow today at the invitation of the Central Committee of the Soviet Communist Party to discuss the situation in Lebanon.

- Junblatt's visit is probably intended to bolster his image as a Lebanese political figure.
